

Macmillan English QCE Units 1 & 2 and 3 & 4

The exam success series

Macmillan English has been written specifically for the new 2019 Queensland English syllabus. The series prepares students for successful completion of the course and for assessment and exam success.

The textbooks each feature a curated selection of multimodal, literary and non-literary texts. These carefully selected texts provide opportunities for students to develop skills and strategies for analysing perspectives, representation and evidence. The textbook systematically and explicitly teaches students how to challenge ideas and interpretations through analysis and creation.

Key features:

- Curated selection of literary, non-literary and multimodal texts
- Multimodal texts to develop analysis skills across a range of genres
- Varied activities to develop communication skills, critical and creative thinking and other 21st century skills
- Concise and accessible explanations and ample scaffolding, including comprehensive glossary of key terms
- Assessment tasks to prepare students for the external Unit 3 & 4 exam.

Authored by leading educators

Margaret Miller (MA Literature) is Head of Department Senior School at Clifton State High School. She is an innovative teacher with high expectations of student success, and has led English faculties in developing and writing numerous courses and programs. In 2017 she was invited by ETAQ to be profiled as one of 'Queensland's outstanding teachers of English' as part of ETAQ's 50th anniversary.

Robyn Colwill (PhD in Australian Literature) has extensive experience in the teaching of English at secondary and tertiary levels, and in the writing and development of courses and curriculum materials in both sectors. She is a former Head of Department (English) at Brisbane Girls Grammar School, and is currently a University lecturer in English Education.

Jo Genders (series consultant) is Head of Curriculum Development: English at Brisbane Girls Grammar School. In her role as Senior Education Officer for English subjects at the QCAA, Jo has had extensive experience in policy and processes for curriculum, standards, assessment and moderation. As the Manager for English at the QCAA, Jo oversaw the development of the 2019 English, Literature, English as an Additional Language, English and Literature Extension, and Essential English syllabuses, and was Chief Examiner for the 2016 External Assessment Trial for English.
